

RESOURCES FOR STUDENTS SEEKING OPPORTUNITIES ABROAD

Many students seek to complement their course of study by participating in internships in the US or abroad. Upon graduation, some students choose to pursue employment opportunities abroad. These resources are designed to provide you with information about internship, study, work, and travel abroad.

Going Global country-specific career and employment database contains more than 30,000 pages of constantly-updated information on topics such as: work permit/visa regulations, resume writing guidelines and examples, employment trends, networking groups and cultural/interviewing advice. World-wide job openings, internship listings, and corporate profiles are also included. You can access GoingGlobal via Career Center Portlet in Portal

Uniworld Online Directories

American Firms Operating in Foreign Countries

Foreign Firms Operating in the United States

Access: Horn Library Electronic Resources or CCD Website

These directories allow you to identify and download lists of American companies that have subsidiaries in foreign countries and foreign companies that have subsidiaries in the U.S.

Eurograduate

<http://www.eurograduate.com>

Features advice and links for postgraduate and career options as well as market reports for select industries, including banking and finance, engineering, life sciences, retail, and travel, and tourism. Search for jobs by industry, occupation, or country.

Transitions Abroad

<http://www.transitionsabroad.com>

Provides detailed information about work abroad, study abroad, travel abroad, and living abroad. You can search for internship and jobs abroad by region or by industry.

AIESEC

<http://www.aiesec.org/>

Provides an international platform for young people to discover and develop their potential to have a positive impact in society. AIESEC runs an exchange program that offers the opportunity to live and work in a foreign country.

Boston University International Programs

<http://www.bu.edu/abroad/>

BU welcomes all college students who wish to participate in their internship and study abroad programs.

CDS International

<http://www.cdsintl.org>

A non-profit organization committed to the advancement of international practical training opportunities for young professionals, students, educators, as well as labor, business and government representatives.

Consortium for International Education

<http://www.cie.uci.edu/iop/internsh.html>

This Web site features a comprehensive list of resources for internships abroad and study abroad programs.

Global Gateway (powered by monster.com)

<http://globalgateway.monster.com>

International Cooperative Education

<http://www.icemenlo.com>

Provides students and recent graduates with opportunities to gain practical work experience abroad.

American Chambers of Commerce Abroad (AmChams)

<http://www.uschamber.com/international/directory/default>

Voluntary associations of American companies and individuals doing business in a particular country, as well as firms and individuals of that country who operate in the United States. Currently, 104 AmChams in 91 countries are affiliated with the U.S. Chamber of Commerce.